

American Progress Action Fund

For Immediate Release
January 4, 2005

Contact: Daniella Gibbs Leger
202-682-1611

* MEDIA ADVISORY ****

ALITO'S AMERICA IS NOT OUR AMERICA:
Young people speak out against the Alito nomination

Washington, DC - Eleven major national student and youth organizations are coming together to speak out against the nomination of Samuel Alito to the Supreme Court. Students and representatives from these organizations will speak from a variety of perspectives on why Alito is the wrong choice for America.

Student groups participating include: Alliance for Justice Student Action; Americans United for Separation of Church and State Campus Division; Campus Progress; Choice USA; Feminist Majority Foundation; Hip Hop Caucus; League of Pissed Off Voters; Law Students Against Alito; Sierra Student Coalition; Young People for Action; Younger Women's Task Force, National Council of Women's Organizations.

Thursday, January 5, 2006
Program: 9:00 AM – 9:45 AM
Admission is free.

American Progress Action Fund
1333 H Street NW, 10th Floor
Washington, DC 20005

Nearest Metro: Blue/Orange: McPherson Square, Red: Metro Center
Click here to RSVP
or call (202) 741-6258

The event is being hosted by Campus Progress and the Center for American Progress Action Fund, which together recently launched the "Alito's America, It's Not Our America" campaign. The campaign features an innovative web video, photo petition, a $50,000 internet ad buy and grassroots public education efforts on campuses in 22 states so far.